Plan of Salvation

Hear - (Rom. 10:14) “How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?”

Believe - (John 8:24) “I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.”

Repent - (Luke 13:3) “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

Confess - (Rom 10:9) “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

Be Baptized - (Acts 2:38) “Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.”

Be Faithful - (Rev. 2:10) “Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.”

The Gospel Light

"To give light to them that sit in darkness..." Luke 1:79

Vol. XVII November 26, 2006 Number 42

*By the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yea, we wept
When we remembered Zion.
We hung our harps
Upon the willows in the midst of it.
For there those who carried us away
captive asked of us a song,
And those who plundered us
requested mirth,
Saying, “Sing us one of the songs of Zion!”*

*How shall we sing the LORD’S song
In a foreign land?*

Psalms 137:1-4

Taking Time...

The story is told of long ago when a preacher was asked to come to the farmer's home for "Sunday Supper." When the preacher arrived, he saw a very humble home. There was the father, mother, and small four-year-old boy. The boy was quite entertaining, with his wit, wisdom, and good behavior. The preacher was very impressed with this home.

Later, when he related the story to a friend, the friend asked why this home was so unusual, and why did he enjoy his visit so much? Therefore, the preacher proceeded to explain what he observed in the home. While visiting with the farmer, the preacher could not but notice, that the little boy had gone into the kitchen to ask his mother a question. It happened, that during the afternoon, while the mother of the house was washing dishes, and cleaning the many parts of the cream separator. The little boy came and asked her a question. The boy had been looking at one of the magazines in the home, and bringing it to his mother asked, "Momma, what's this man doing?" Well, to the preacher's astonishment, the woman stopped doing the dishes, dried her hands, and sat down with her son, spending some time in answering his question.

After the child left the room, the preacher asked the woman why she interrupted her chores to answer her son's question? The preacher made the comment that probably most other mothers would have said "Run along, I'm busy!" The woman answered: "I expect to be washing dishes and cream separators for the rest of my life, but never again will my son ask me that question."
